“Adirondack Guides: Tales from the Wild”

$30PP

Adirondack guides have been a cornerstone of our mountain life. Their definition is more than you may think. Besides being relied upon to get you there and back, guides were often asked to perform a wide variety of services sometimes down-right bizarre. Catering to the diverse characters and backgrounds of hunters and trappers with philosophers, artists and the wealthy it made for interesting stories. Sometimes odd things had to be brought on these back country trips to make it more like a hotel. Grub food and natural beds? Oh no, not always and some trips resembled African caravans! Start off with a special Friday night Philosophers Pub that introduces you to the world of winter-based local foods. Return to your secluded Adirondack cabin with crackling fireplace and bubbling Jacuzzi. Bring back to your chalet, one of our specialty or rare beers or wines from the Adirondacks only hand-crafted Wine and Beer Cellar.

Pub Theme: Adirondack Guide-style Foods

Friday March 2nd 7PM – Special Friday Philosophers Pub:

“Family Urbanites Come to the Adirondacks & Start a Family Business – in the Dead of an Adirondack Winter”

$30PP

Colorful stories and anecdotes of an immigrant urban family that pulled up its roots in New Jersey to start a business in the Adirondack Great Woods, in the height of winter. Bracing -40 below temperatures with a business that had been abandoned for 10 years and with no working heating system, re-live colorful stories that will make you laugh and maybe cry. An inspirational story for anyone that has wondered what it is like to run a family business in a rural area that had no entrepreneurial experience – just a dream! Practical advice and a small business guide from Ernest Hohmeyer who besides being involved with the family business was the founding director of an Adirondack Park sustainable development organization that won a Presidential award.

Pub Theme: Adirondack 100 Mile Inspired
