Adirondack Cooking School

“Winter Roasts & Sautees: Its All in the Sauce.”

Class & Tastings $150PP: Book Now! Special Family & Group Rates!

Yes its winter but you can still cook from local ingredients. Dark sauces, light sauces, vegetarian and meat lovers sauces are explored. Get juiced by the many ways that a sauce can add flavor to your meal. And sauces can be used in more ways than you think and not just for the typical meat and potatoes. Learn how to use all parts of local grass-fed meats for bone-broth sauce stocks, slow roasts, stews and sautés. Cook once for the whole week and enjoy a different taste each time. What is the secret to wine sauces? Based on Executive Chef Cathy Hohmeyer’s post-graduate work in what is based on a unique, healthy and old world nutrient dense cuisine entitled “culinary naturopathy,” learn simple, natural ingredients whose recipes you can take home with you. You will actually prepare some of the dishes that you will sample as part of the tasting dinner following the class. Minimum participation required.
