

January 6th – 8th Winterfest Sleigh, Supp & Snooze

Begin 2012 by stepping back in time to an Adirondack yesteryear of jingling sleighs, lantern-lit trails and one of the last original Adirondack lodges still open to the public. It's Winterfest in the Adirondack Alps! Cross-country ski the groomed trails of the Paul Smith's VIC or the back country wonders of New York State's only wilderness canoe region. Visit the Wild Center or take in the winter scene at the Olympic Village, Lake Placid. Meander among the arts of historic Saranac Lake. Or, go nowhere and take a respite from the crazy holiday season and enjoy the snow-laden seclusion of your artisan lodging with crackling fireplace and Jacuzzis. Take in a wellness cooking demonstration from Executive Chef Cathy Hohmeyer who has created a trademark wellness cuisine "culinary naturopathy," and learn five simple steps to a better eating lifestyle for the New Year. Enjoy a history and tasting workshop of holiday brews from the Adirondacks only hand-crafted Wine & Beer Cellar with over 250 specialty beers and over 350 boutique wines. Snuggle in and travel nowhere and enjoy a winter wonderland of activities both inside and out.
